ORIGINAL

JOHN W. BRICKER FEDERAL BUILDING

JULY 16, 1986.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

---

Mr. HOWARD, from the Committee on Public Works and Transportation, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H.R. 4555]

The Committee on Public Works and Transportation, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 4555) to designate the Federal Building at Spring and High Streets in Columbus, Ohio, as the "John W. Bricker Building", having considered the same, report favorably thereon with amendments and recommend that the bill as amended do pass.

The amendments are as follows:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION

The Federal Building located at 200 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio, is designated as the "John W. Bricker Federal Building".

SEC. 2. REFERENCE

Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, record, or other paper of the United States to the building referred to in section 1 shall be deemed to be a reference to the "John W. Bricker Federal Building".

Amend the title so as to read: "A bill to designate the Federal Building at Spring and High Streets in Columbus, Ohio, as the 'John W. Bricker Federal Building'.".

John William Bricker was born on a farm near Mount Sterling, Madison County, Ohio on September 6, 1893. He attended the county schools and Mount Sterling High School. He graduated from the Ohio State University at Columbus, A.B., 1916 and from its law department LL. B., 1920, and LL. D., 1940. He was admitted to the bar in 1917 and commenced practice in Columbus, Ohio, in 1920. During the First World War, John Bricker served as first lieutenant and chaplain in the United States Army in 1917 and 1918. He was solicitor for Grandview Heights, Ohio, 1920–1928; and assistant attorney general of Ohio 1923–1927. He was a member of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio 1929–1932 and again was attorney general of Ohio 1933–1937.

The Honorable John Bricker was elected Governor of Ohio in 1939 and served in this capacity until 1945. He was a Republican candidate for Vice President in 1944 and was a delegate to the Republican National Conventions from 1936 to 1968, except 1944. John Bricker was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1946 and served admirably from January 3, 1947, to January 3, 1959. During his tenure in the United States Senate, Senator Bricker was held in high esteem by his colleagues.

In view of his outstanding record of public service, it is most fitting and approriate to name the Federal Building at Spring and High Streets in Columbus, Ohio, as the "John W. Bricker Federal Building".

COMPLIANCE WITH CLAUSE 2 (l) OF RULE XI OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

(1) With reference to clause 2(l)(3)(A) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, no separate hearings were held on the subject matter of this legislation by the Subcommittee on Investigations and Oversight. However, the Subcommittee on Public Buildings and Grounds held hearings on this subject matter which resulted in the reported bill.

(2) With respect to clause 2(l)(3)(B) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives the bill, as reported, does not provide new budget authority or increased tax expenditures. Accordingly, a statement pursuant to section 208(a) of the Congressional Budget Act is not required.

(3) With reference to clause 2(l)(3)(C) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the committee has not received a report from the Congressional Budget Office under section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act.

(4) With reference to clause 2(l)(3)(D) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the committee has not received a report from the Committee on Government Operations pertaining to this subject matter.

(5) With respect to clause 2(l)(4) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Respresentatives, H.R. 4555, as reported, should have no effect on prices and costs.

COST OF THE LEGISLATION

Clause 7(a) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives required a statement of the estimated cost to the United States which would be incurred in carrying out H.R. 4555, as reported, in fiscal year 1986 and each of the following 5 years. The carrying out of this legislation is not expected to result in any increased costs of the United States.

COMMITTEE ACTION AND VOTE

The committee in compliance with rule XI(3)(l)(2)(B), reported favorably the bill H.R. 4555, by voice vote.
